

Andrew White: NSI Project Manager

How Does Lottery Break Through?

NASPL Corporate Development Subcommittee

- Standard Presentations for North America
 - Communicate Unified Industry Message

NSI

- Use the Standards & Best Practices Created By NSI

NSI Best Practices & Standards

Best Practices

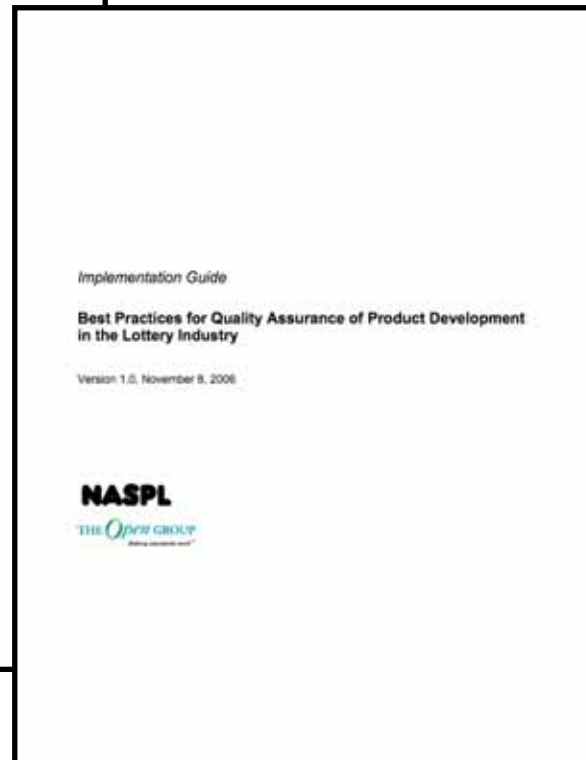

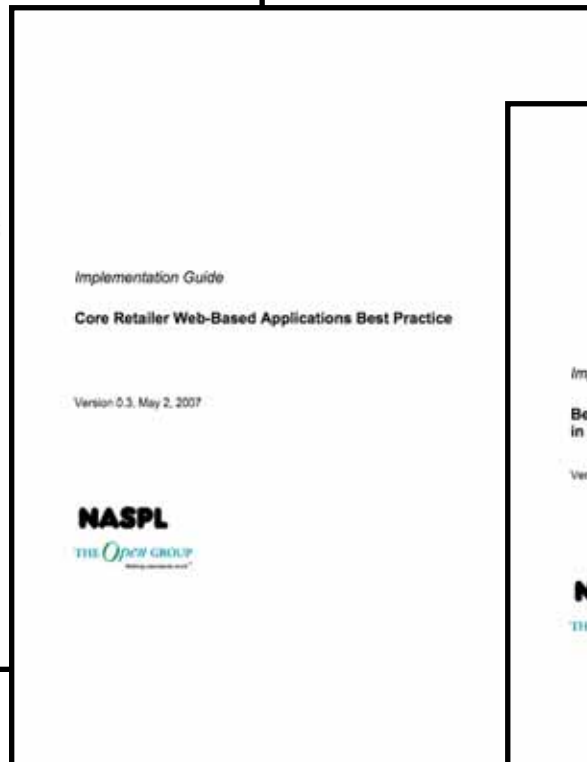

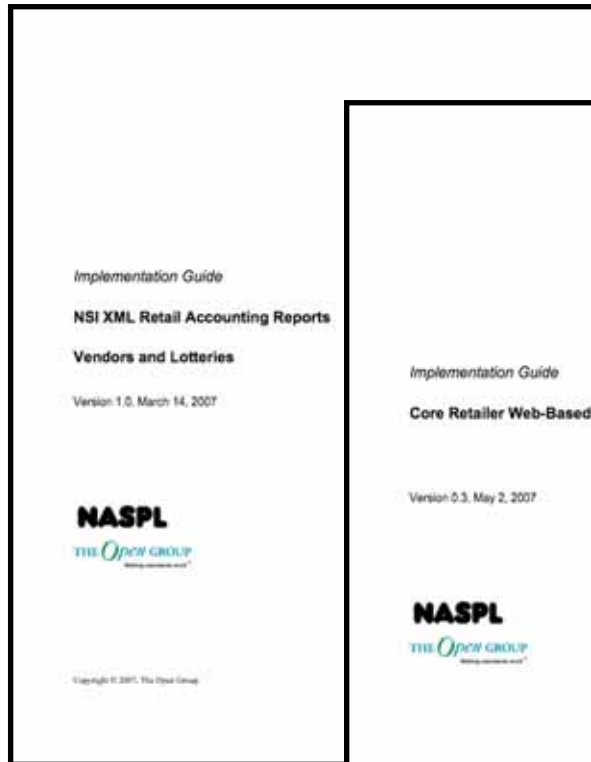

- Quality Assurance
 - Requirements Definition
 - Development Process
 - Acceptance Testing
- RFP
 - Guide To Standard RFP Template
 - Standard Request for Proposal Template

Technical Standards

- Barcodes for Instant Tickets
- XML Retail Accounting Reports
- Core Retailer Web-Based Applications

Using Standards & Best Practices

- Implementation Guides
- Teleconference Workshops

Use Them
They Are

FREE!

No Travel
Required

What Do Retail Chains Want?

- Easier Reconciliation

- Barcode
- XML
- Uniform Lottery/Retailer Websites

- Inventory Management

- Instant Ticket Management Process

Corporate Development & Standards Use Is How Lottery

Goes From This

To This

Wal-Mart - Before and After

Other Notes of Interest

- XML Pilot Program

- SC, NC, TX, LA, OK, The Open Group, PCATS, GTECH & Scientific Games Participating.
- Lotteries Can Be Verified Upon Completion
- Vendors Can Be Certified Upon Completion
- Vendors Will be able to implement in other jurisdictions.

- Verification & Certification

- The Louisiana Lottery has completed the verification process in Quality Assurance.
- Scientific Games has completed the verification process in Quality Assurance.
- Intralot and Nebraska are currently using the Barcode Standard.

NSI Website

www.opengroup.org/naspl